

DECISION MAKING

Card game

You have a problem
in front of yourself.

You can see it 2 ways:

- a. As a challenge.
- b. Obstacle.

1.

DECISION MAKING

Card game

You see your problem
as a challenge.

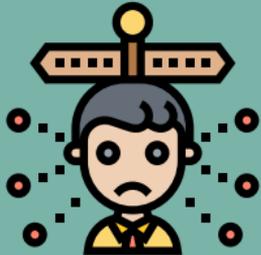

Define your challenge.

2.a

DECISION MAKING

Card game

You see your problem
as an obstacle.

Find somebody and nag about your problem.

Finish

2.b

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Find a person who may help you with your challenge.

3.

DECISION MAKING

Card game

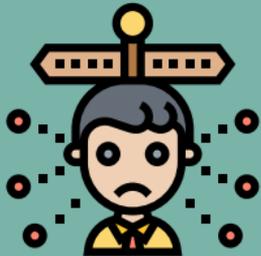

Think of strategies
you used to solve similar challenges.

4.

DECISION MAKING

Card game

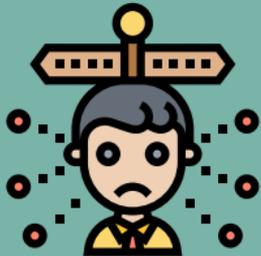

Think of things
you need to concur
your challenge.

5.

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Think of other ways
your challenge
can be solved.

6.

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Make a plan using Johari Window.

7.a

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Make a plan using the reflective practice cycle.

7.b

DECISION MAKING

Card game

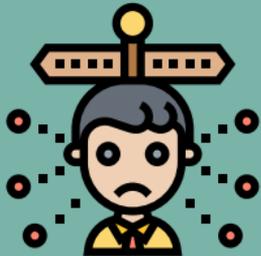

Let's try your plan.

8

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Let's check how did it work.

Did you expect the result you got.

9.a

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Let's check how did it work.

What was good.

9.b

DECISION MAKING

Card game

Let's check how did it
work.

What do you want to change next time.

9.c